Entry Information

Eligibility: Open to all young artists between the ages of 4 and 18, living in Louisville/Superior, attending Louisville/Superior Schools, and are family members of Louisville Art Association members.

Entries: Limited to 1 entry per young artist

Media: Two dimensional watercolor, oil, acrylic, ink, pencil, crayola, photography, mixed media, handmade paper, etc. Three dimensional work could include but is not limited to sculpture, pottery, etc

Two dimensional art work must be matted (standard mats can be found at local craft stores) and backed with foam core board, not framed, as the Children's library does not have enough room or the ability to hang framed work. Each piece of matted work must have a hanger on the back. Oil and acrylic paintings that are on stretched canvas must have wires for hanging. Please put the artist's name and age on the back of each painting, drawing etc. 3 dimensional art work must have the artist's name and age on the bottom of the piece.

Delivery: All art work must be delivered to the Louisville Public Library, Children's department on February 29th between 4:00 and 5:30

Pick up artwork: Artist/parents must pick up their work when the show is over on March 30th between 3pm and 5:30pm. If you are not able to pick up your art, please arrange for it to be gathered, there is not a place to store pieces that are left.

Awards: Participation ribbons will be given to every artist.

Sponsors: The Youth Spring Art Show is sponsored by Louisville Public Library, Louisville Art Association, Foothills Kiwanis Club, Boulder County SCFD, Louisville Cultural Council and the City of Louisville
