Our Mission

The Louisville Public Library is committed to providing:

The benefit and pleasure of learning and discovery through its collections, services, and staff;

Access to and assistance in using emerging technologies which serve as a gateway to information resources within and beyond our walls;

Quality service demonstrating respect for the individual and fidelity to the principles of democracy; and

A pleasing, comfortable, and safe setting in which Library collections and customer service are readily accessible.

Circulation & Patron Services

If we have your email address, we can send:

- ❑ A courtesy email notification 3 days before an item’s due date
- ❑ An email notification that your items on hold are at the Library
 - A $1.00 fee will be assessed for every item placed on hold that is not picked up

Renew Materials 24/7

- ❑ Online at www.louisville-library.org ➤ click on My Account
- ❑ By phone at 303-449-2665 (BOOK)
You will need your library card number
- ❑ You may not be able to renew an item because...
 - It is overdue
 - It is on hold for another patron
 - It has already been renewed

Collection Agency

The Library’s intent is to provide fair access to materials for all patrons. As a last resort, we use a collection agency to recover significantly overdue materials and outstanding fees.
